YOWELL RANCH HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

ASSESSMENT COLLECTION POLICY

Effective: January 1, 2010

Pursuant to Article IV of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for the Yowell Ranch Homeowners Association, annual assessment payments are due by the first (1st) of January. If payments are not received by the tenth (10th) day of the month, a late fee of $7.00 will be applied to the account to compensate for the Association's administrative and processing costs of late payments. A late fee will be charged each month the balance remains unpaid to compensate for the Association's continuing administrative and processing costs of late payments.

Please Note: Annual statements issued to all property owners of record approximately mid-November each year. Property owners who do not receive their statements are responsible for contacting the Management Company prior to the first due date to request a replacement set. Members in good standing may access account information and make online payments at <http://www.realmanage.com>.

Insufficient funds check: Accounts presented with an insufficient funds payment will be charged a non-negotiable insufficient funds fee of not less than $25.00. Payment of the outstanding account balance will be required to be paid with a money order or cashier's check. Personal checks will not be accepted to satisfy an outstanding account balance when an insufficient fund check makes up a portion of the balance.

30 Days Delinquent: The Collection Department will send a "Courtesy Notice" including statement of account to the property owner for the delinquent assessment, which will include a finance charge. This is a 30-day demand for payment.

60 Days Delinquent: The Collection Department will send the "Delinquency Account Notice" notifying the property owner of the account balance, of collection costs, legal fees and potential legal action if the account is not paid current. A request will be made for the property owner to check his/her records and contact the Management Company if a discrepancy is found. This is a 30-day demand for payment.

90 Days Delinquent: The Collection Department will send the "Delinquent Account - Final Notice" notifying the property owner of collection costs, legal fees and potential legal action if the account is not paid current. A request will be made for the property owner to check his/her records and contact the Management Company if a discrepancy is found. This letter will notify the homeowner of the amounts owed and will further advise the owner if the account is not paid current within thirty (30) days, that the account will be referred to the Association's attorney and additional collection costs, including legal and collection referral fees, will be incurred immediately upon referral. This letter will also include the notices required by Chapter 209 of the Texas Property Code in connection with amenity privileges where applicable, advising the homeowner that if payment in full is not received within thirty (30) days, the homeowners right to access the Association's amenities, including the pool, will be terminated.

120 Days Delinquent: If the account has not been paid in full, the Collection Department will send the "Delinquent Account - Post Final Notice" at 120 days delinquent and at subsequent 30 day intervals until the account has been paid in full or referred to the association's attorney.

180 Days Delinquent: The post referral collection action will be imposed by the association's attorney in accordance with the governing documents of the association. Association's attorney will send a demand for payment to the homeowner asking for full payment within thirty (30) days, advising that if the account is not paid current, a lawsuit will be initiated which may include a request for foreclosure of the Association's lien, approval to file a lawsuit. The homeowner will be responsible for all legal fees, court costs and expenses incurred.

Mandatory Membership: Membership in the Association is mandatory pursuant to Article III of the Declaration. Further, pursuant to Article IV, a property owner is obligated to pay the Assessments to the Association even if the Association's amenities are not used by the property owner.

Effective Date: The foregoing collection procedure has been adopted by the Board of Directors of the Association to be effective on January 1, 2010, for all accounts that have not yet reached the stage of the Collection Department's sending a "Final Notice Letter." For all other accounts, the prior collection procedure shall apply. The foregoing collection procedure is a directive by the Board of the Association to the Management Company and is intended to be a guide to collection of Assessments owed to the Association. The Board of the Association may at any time revise the foregoing collection procedure and may at any time direct the Management Company to proceed differently with collection of an individual account based on circumstances applicable to that account and advice and guidance from the Management Company or the Association's attorney. Failure by the Management Company or the Board of the Association to follow the foregoing collection procedure shall not in any way affect the property owner's obligation to pay all Assessments when due, along with all collection costs. To obtain any information regarding this collection procedure or to obtain the most up-to-date collection procedure, a property owner should contact the Management Company.

The Management Company at the direction of the Board of Directors and on behalf of the Association may elect to pursue any available method of collection allowable under the Texas law, which may include but not be limited to the filing of a lawsuit for foreclosure against the property owner.
